PRACTICAL INFORMATION

This folder will show you how The National Provisioner is tuned to the times, and the great amount of valuable editorial material and information the magazine is presenting to its readers each week.

This material could not be obtained from any combination of sources, but readers of The Provisioner get all this information in full, at the right time, by paying only the low subscription price of the magazine. That is why almost 8,000 packers read and rely on the magazine. You should too!
